BONUS BONDS DELIVERY IS MONDAY

Local Postoffices complete Arrangements to Make Delivery in Person.

All ex-service men who have filed their applications for their bonus bonds will receive them by registered mail either Monday or Tuesday, unless the immense machinery falls down that Uncle Sam has set up to make such delivery. Local postmasters were called together Monday evening when they received definite instructions as to the manner in which the bonds shall be delivered; the method to be followed in handling bonds for redemption; and the delivery of checks for those who desire to cash their bonds immediately.

The bonds are in multiples of $50, the veterans receiving from ten to thirty, each bond requiring a separate endorsement. Warning has been issued to the ex-service men not to endorse the bonds or sign them in any way, except in the presence of the postmaster or an authorized assistant. Personal identification is necessary before the bonds can be delivered. The person who makes the identification must also sign the receipt.

In case of rural routes and city deliveries, ex-service men are asked to be at home or near the rural mail boxes when the mail carrier arrives, to save him as much inconvenience as possible. The "personal delivery" precaution is fulfilled by the government with the absolute delivery of the bonds. After they have been turned in for cash, the responsibility of the postal department ends in that letters containing the checks will be mailed and delivered to the address given by the veteran when he endorses bonds.

Checks should be received from two to three days after the bonds are turned in.

The majority of the local postoffices are remaining open either Monday or Tuesday evening, if the bonds are received according to schedule time, otherwise one day later, at which time exclusive bonus bonds business will be transacted. Many of the local veteran organizations will have post officers at the postoffices to identify the men who are not personally acquainted with the postmaster.

C. L. Griffith, commander of Merle Guild Post will be on hand at the postoffice the two nights that it will be open to handle bonus bonds, for the purpose of identifying veterans who are not personally known to the postmaster. Mr. Griffith states that from records available in his office there will be about 250 local boys to receive bonus bonds.

Announcements have been issued by a number of the local postmasters as to the methods they will follow and are:

Attention Veterans

Adjusted Service Bonds are expected for delivery by the Arlington Heights Post Office on June 15 or 16.

Bonds are to be delivered to ADDRESSER only. There are no exceptions.

These bonds can not be forwarded out of the delivery of this office. Persons who have moved to another city may call at this office and receive their bonds if they are addressed to said persons at this office.

Personal identification is absolutely necessary. Identification papers are of no value. If the veteran is unknown to the postmaster or the clerk in charge, the veteran must bring a witness known both to the postal employee and the veteran.

No bonds will be certified at the time of delivery. When certification is desired an identifying witness is necessary if the veteran is unknown to the postal employee.

Bonds will be delivered by carrier as soon as possible. To expedite matters the veteran should be at home if possible when the carrier arrives and should have his witness at hand. If the veteran is not at home during the day he may call for his bonds at the post office, which will be open for this purpose only until 8 p. m. on Wednesday, June 17 and Thursday, June 18. Bonds to be certified for payment are signed and witnessed before the postal employee. The postal employee gives the veteran a receipt for the bonds and then mails the bonds to the Postmaster at Chicago who in turn mails a check to the veteran. The checks should be received in approximately 48 hours and are not restricted to addressee "only" as are the bonds. This Post Office is not equipped to cash these checks.

Pure Oil Station Held Up

LONE ROBBER GETS DAYS RECEIPTS

This first stick-up in our Village occurred last Sunday evening when Art Wells, manager of the Pure Oil Service Station on Northwest highway, was stuck up by a lone robber who took the day's receipts.

About 10:20 Sunday night, after the station had been closed and Wells was leaving, a car pulled up to the station and when Wells approached it, the occupant who was alone, leveled a gun and demanded whatever money Wells had. After taking the money the lone robber turned his car into the highway again and was immediately lost in the traffic.

Film Laboratory To Be Established in Arlington Heights

The Tri-Art Film, Inc., has acquired the former Searsdale real estate office owned by Carl M. Behrens and expects to be in full operation as a film laboratory within a month. Mr. and Mrs. Brown who have been connected with the distribution of art, entertainment and religious films for many years, originally formed the Tri-Art company in 1918. While their business is film distributors, they have had the thought in mind for some time of actively entering the field of popular priced 16 M. films for amateurs. They have also had their eyes upon the vacant real estate office that adjoins Searsdale and which was fast being demolished and becoming more and more of an eyesore. Thus with the purchase of this building by them as a laboratory they are acquiring a place of business for themselves right here at home and at the same time removing an unsightly structure.

They have already discovered a ready demand for the Tri-Art film which will be sold to amateurs at about $3 a hundred feet which after being exposed, is returned to and developed by the Tri-Art laboratories without cost to the amateur photographer.

Mr. Brown has recently returned from a business trip in the East and is confident that his new business venture will be a success and one that will bring a lot of advertisement to Arlington Heights. Films that have already been marketed are now being received from all parts of the United States for development.

PALATINE ASKS WPA AID FOR TREAT. PLANT

Cost of New Sewage plant to Village Would be $85,000; WPA $154,983.

The village of Palatine, Monday night, authorized the signing of a WPA project application for the new treatment plant that the state water survey board has ordered Palatine to construct. According to the set up in its present form, the government will expend $154,983, while the sponsor's share will be $84,868, the total cost being $299,761. Under the WPA set up, the improvement would have cost $183,000, but the share to be paid by the village would have been over $100,000. New WPA projects are not now being approved and while the total cost has been raised $56,000, the cost to the village under the new plan is lowered by $17,000. The only fly in the ointment is that the project is carried through, the water works funds of the village will be earmarked and could not be hereafter used for current expenses of other departments. It would make the financing of the corporate funds of the village still more difficult than they are now.

A special ordinance was passed by the board authorizing the cash payment of $250 and the issuance of a tax warrant for a like amount, to serve as a retainer fee for Attorney Thomas Matthews, who is defending the village in a suit regarding the misapplication of special assessment funds.

Junior League Members Busy Planning Dance

The annual Summer Frolic of the Junior League will be held at Elmhurst Country Club, Irving Park boulevard and Wood Dale road on Saturday, June 20.

Two committees are working diligently to assure the success of this affair. The ticket committee composed of Gwendolyn Topping, Bernice Ferrin and Loraine Nelson promises a large attendance. The music committee consisting of Dorothy Helm, Harriett Barrett and Eleanor Montgomery have secured Earl Frederick's orchestra to send rhythmic melodies into the air to delight the dancing throngs. Bids may be obtained from any member or at the country club the evening of the dance.

All Junior Leaguers are reminded that the Seventh district spring tea for Juniors will be held at the Palmer House on Sunday, June 14, from three 'til five.

$5,000 WPA Improvement Completed at Palatine Rural School

The school house of District 18, Palatine township, corner of Elmhurst and Algonquin roads has been modernized and its pupils will enjoy all of the playtime advantages and conveniences of city schools as the result of a $5,000 WPA project that was completed this week.

The improvements comprises raising of building, construction of cement foundation and basement, toilet tank, toilet facilities, drinking fountain, locker room, painting and new school yard fence.

The men working upon the project reside in the district and made a special effort to make the job a good one. This project, known as number 2669, can be termed one of the most successful of any attempted in northwest Cook county. The same opportunity probably awaits other school districts that may be interested.

Postoffice Department Asks Change in Name

In order to distinguish this newspaper, which is distributed solely by carrier from the Cook County Herald, which is distributed solely by mail, the postoffice department has asked that the word "Herald" be dropped. "The Herald" has been identified with the growth of Arlington Heights many years, but a new name is forced upon us.

Annual Homecoming Picnic at Buffalo Grove

Two big days of fun making are in prospect at Buffalo Grove July 4th and 5th, when the annual homecoming picnic and chicken dinner will be held. The event is for the benefit of St. Mary's church.

Among the amusements will be softball, games and other attractions. Dancing will include both old and new with Heine's orchestra furnishing the music.
The chicken dinner will be served from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., July 4th.

Townships Must Provide Own Relief

In a statement made Wednesday to the township supervisors of Cook county, Leo M. Lyons, executive secretary of the IERC, said that all townships must provide their own relief from July 1 to July 20. The townships, under the present law must assume the responsibility for the care of indigent persons after July 1. Those townships which levy a thirty cent relief tax will be aided by sales tax funds. The city of Chicago has at last admitted that there is nothing it can do, but levy the same tax as is asked of the townships. Up to the present time, none of the townships have officially levied the thirty cent tax, hoping some action by the legislature will save them from the necessity of such action.

Three Local Republicans at National Convention

Mt. Prospect and Arlington Heights are represented at the Republican National convention, at Cleveland this week by Commissioner William Busse, Rex Volz, and George Schneberger. They left by auto early Sunday morning.

Three Gypsies Search Home of "The Observer"

Three visiting gypsies, who called themselves, "Spanish Ladies from Oklahoma," almost forcibly entered an Arlington Heights home Saturday morning and after "blessing" furniture, contents of dresser drawers, buffet, etc., left with a small sum of money before the two Arlington Heights women, one of whom is ninety years old, were able to call the police.

The occupants of the home are Mrs. E. C. Haynes, writer of Observer's Notes that appears weekly in the Paddock publications and her niece, Miss Taylor. When the latter went to get a glass of water for the gypsy who had knocked at the door, one other entered the house, passing immediately into a bedroom, while a third remained outside to watch. Mrs. Haynes followed the second woman and tried to prevent her from opening drawers, but on account of her age of ninety years was unable to stop the search for valuables which extended into a second bedroom. The first gypsy searched the dining room and located the money in a buffet drawer. In reply to demands to "stop," "get out," etc., the visitors continually would say, "bless you."

Mrs. Haynes and Miss Taylor were unable to get to the phone until their visitors had left. Chief Skoog was unable to locate the visitors, but received reports from two other residents that gypsies were seen in their neighborhoods.

The Arlington Heights police chief in last week's paper warned residents not to allow gypsies to enter their homes.

WPA PROJECTS ARE STILL ACTIVE

Ninety Men at Work on Arlington Park; Men Return in Palatine.

The WPA projects in the country towns of Cook county are still active. While they have been somewhat curtailed due to lack of funds, a number of the men who were laid off last week in Palatine are back upon the village street and sidewalk project. In Arlington Heights, the Campbell street sewer project was completed last night and the men have been transferred to the recreational park project. Next week there will be 94 men at work upon the latter.

Men Must Give Good Work

Mr. Budd, Project Supervisor, who now has charge of the projects in this part of Cook county, recently called the workmen of each project together and warned them that there will be no more "easy labor." Men will be expected to give full value for the time for which they are paid. They must report on time and stay on the job the full number of hours. He believes that there has been a marked improvement in the efficiency obtained.

While no person can say what is going to happen, it is reported that hereafter many projects will be set up by months with definite amounts of labor hours and material to be used in each month. This will tend to hasten the work.

It is hoped that the work will continue. Many more projects will be approved and sponsoring bodies should continue to formulate projects.

The swimming pool project for Des Plaines was approved and in the opinion of some of the WPA officials the Arlington Heights swimming pool may also be approved, after it is somewhat re-vised.

The government is ready to proceed with the reservoir project in Palatine, but the village is not yet ready, awaiting approval from the state health department. Repairs are needed in the storage tank of the water system.

The district WPA office is ready to help every sponsoring body to the best of its ability and projects that have been temporarily abandoned, due to lack of funds, may be resumed when the new appropriations are allotted.

COOK COUNTY FIREMEN HOLD MEETING HERE

Chief Biermann and De- partment Entertain Del- egates from Surround- ing Towns.

The Cook County Firemen's Suburban association held its monthly meeting at Mount Prospect on Monday evening, June 8, when our local firemen entertained about 100 delegates from the fire departments of the surrounding towns. The business meeting was held in the basement of the Lutheran school.

A very much appreciated talk on the value and necessity of first aid training was given by Dr. Gentels of the American Red Cross. Dr. Gentels has spent many years training and teaching men in the arts of first aid assistance and brought home rather forcibly the fact that first aid knowledge not only enabled men and women to give aid in emergencies, but made them accident conscious, thereby helping to reduce the number of accidents.

He told how the training of men in the plant of the Western Electric Co. materially reduced the number of accidents and assisted in the care of the injured. Dr. Gentels explained the necessity of quickly and properly taking care of a bruise or cut in the skin, no matter how slight or insignificant the injury may seem. "The skin is the armor of our bodies against death—death by infection," said Dr. Gentels, explaining that our bodies are covered with millions of germs just waiting an entrance into the body through a cut or bruise. "If proper first-aid treatment is given," stated Dr. Gentels, "the danger of infection is only 1/12 of what it might be without such treatment."

The speech of Dr. Gentels was followed by the installation of officers of the association, the following having been elected at the previous meeting: Chief Mersh of Evanston, president; Chief H. Bucher of Northbrook, vice president; Chief Boemond of Morton Grove, secretary, and Chief Ladendorff of Glenview, sergeant-at-arms. Chief Comfort of Palatine, retiring president, gave over the chair to Chief Mersh following a brief installation speech by Chief Young.

At the meeting an announcement was made that a demonstration by the Park Ridge department would be staged June 16, 1936 and then several delegates announced the dates of their department's annual picnics. Following the business meeting the firemen retired to the fire house where the local department entertained with refreshments and sandwiches.

It should be mentioned here, that the Mt. Prospect fire department was organized in 1913 and that the four original charter members were still active on the force. They are Herman Meyn, Chris. Busse, Wm. Busse, Jr., and John Pohlman, who have served on the department for 23 years. Our department now has 70 active members and a fully trained and efficient force.

Lutheran School Children Entertainment Friday Evening

Friday, June 12, unquestionably marks the highest achievement ever attained in the line of extra-curricular work by the pupils of St. Peter Lutheran school. The play, "Baby Parade" will be the highlight of the evening's entertainment. And what a baby parade it will be. To miss it will mean regret. To see it will mean the biggest giggle of the season. Other features of the program will be an operetta called "The Lemonade Stand," selections by the children's choir and the "Hawaiian Guitar Trio." All are welcome. The program begins sharply at 8 p. m.

Graduation of 8th grade will take place Friday, June 19. The school picnic will be held June 21, at the Old Folk's Farm.

Jakie Bauer, who has a good job in the city, was given a two week's vacation, one with pay. He goes back to his job next week. Glad of his good luck.

Evidently Landon of Kansas has all the earmarks of a successful candidate getting his teeth all pruned up for a hollywood smile. A daughter with the new fad name of Nancy Ann, and his wife wears a becoming "Permanent." Yes Landon knows his onions.

The friends here who remember the aunt, Mrs. Maria Russell, who has been with her brother's children here often and who was with Lila Ackley Kuhlber in her last illness, is now hopefully recovering from a recent severe illness in a mountain rest home in North Carolina. This has been a trying week for two of the Herald reporters, a visit of "Two Spanish Ladies" from Oklahoma, as they introduced themselves and all the jitter of the convention has interfered with collecting home news.

The Presbyterian Missionary meet Friday, June 12, with Mrs. H. C. Cleveland in her home. The closing meeting for the summer season.

The Junior aid of the Presbyterian church, served a noonday luncheon in the church dining hall and it will be a top notch affair we are sure.

The last week in May, the 27th, a hostess luncheon given in honor of the aid's oldest member, was given in the church dining hall. The table was prettily spread, especially the one at which the guest of honor sat, pretty nosegays at each place. The program in charge of Mrs. Rexford Volz gave a history of the society well arranged and well given. Some young Misses gave some of the popular radio monologues. Mrs. Mitzloff gave two numbers in her well trained and clear musical voice. A real pleasure to hear. Over a hundred guests were present, and it was indeed a happy social event.

First course served at the Atkinson home, second course (meat) served at the church, salad at Fellingham's home, fourth or dessert course at the Reinshagen home in Stonegate. It is reported to have been a great success and as proof the reporter tells us "Several men stayed it out."

Miss Carmion Sieburg entertained her friend Miss Marjorie Maxwell from Chicago the past week. Miss Maxwell says the air in Arlington Heights makes her eat and sleep well and the week flies by too fast. We believe she is just plain "sold on Arlington Heights."

We note from Chicago paper, the death of Arthur Graves Dale, a brother of Miss Ruth Dale, our former beloved high school teacher. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at Rose Hill chapel. We know Miss Dale's pupils in Arlington Heights always hold their interest in all that touches her.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scherf accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Haake to River Forest Sunday, to attend a pre-nuptial shower given for Mrs. Haake's brother, who is to be married in about two weeks. We did not learn the name of the bride-to-be, who will share all the pre-nuptial shower brought, yet it will be a mutual affair, and a pleasure to those who gave for the pourdown.

MERLE GUILD POST No. 208 AMERICAN LEGION

At our last regular meeting June 9, Past Commander Phil Engling, present Commander of our Drum and Bugle Corps was rendered a Past Commanders' ring in appreciation for his splendid work in running our regular Saturday evening dances at Schufrieder's in Wheeling and which has enriched the treasury of the Drum and Bugle Corps considerably. Past Commander Browne made an excellent presentation speech and Commander Griffith drew to our attention the fact that Phil is one of the main forces of the Post.

It was rather hot last Tuesday night, but that did not keep a large membership from turning out and they were amply rewarded for their effort. Comrades Heine Nichols and Warren Parker gave a very comprehensive report on our housing plans.

Two new members were present, Comrades Walter Hansen and Walter Berschet and were presented with Legion pins.

Comrades Clyde Jones and Miles Burpee Co-chairmen of our Festival committee reported on it stating that it held this year July 21 to July 25, inclusive, on the south side of town—Davis street running from Campbell to Dutton avenue.

The big feature of this festival will be a drawing on a thousand dollar Studebaker 1936 Dictator 6 cylinder De Luxe Cruising Sedan—something worthwhile. This will be a bigger and better Festival, new and more rides, different booths and more skill games. We are counting on your support, comrades, to put it over.

Merle Guild Squadron News

We had a large turnout of boys at our last Squadron meeting last Friday, first we played ball at the south side school grounds and then went to the Legion Home where we put on a regular ritual meeting with our new standards and colors, after which we were measured for caps and as promised ice cream and cake were served.

This coming Friday we will practice baseball at the south side school grounds, there will be no regular meeting.

Plans are afoot to hold some of our meetings at the Forest Preserves where we will cook our own suppers, at Lake Zurich where we will swim and possibly some Friday night we will take a trip to the Dunes near Waukegan. Be sure to attend our meetings, you will enjoy them.

Our next regular meeting will be held Friday, June 19 and we are counting on seeing you there.

Merle Guild Auxiliary Notes

The regular June meeting of Merle Guild Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening, June 2, at the Legion Home. Seventeen members were present. A report of the proceeds of the Auxiliary dance was made and thanks is hereby given to those who donated cakes and helped make this affair a success.

The nominating committee composed of several past presidents submitted the names of members they had selected as officers for the coming year. The members were duly elected and are as follows:

President—Antoinette I. Miller, First Vice President—Marie Griffith.

Second Vice President—Doris Palmer.

Treasurer—Fannie May, Chaplain—Maude K. Parker, Historian—Elsie Platt.

Sergeant-at-arms—Dorothy Neubauer.

Merle Guild Unit is acting as hostess to the District this month and the meeting is to be held Thursday evening, June 18, at the high school auditorium. Jeanette Pecchia, Field chairman of the district, is adding to the entertainment of the occasion with a Fidac program.

"The Pageant of Nations," Mrs. Nichols, activities chairman is in charge of the refreshments and has selected as her refreshment committee, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Olsen and Mrs. Thompson. All members are urged to attend this meeting and make a good response to roll call.

Ireland and Christianity

The Irish became Christians largely through the work of St. Patrick. In the Fifth century, and for about six centuries after Ireland was the home of learning, of the arts and industries, "Island of saints and scholars." While civilization and Christianity were being threatened in other parts of Europe, Irish missionaries were carrying their learning to the known world.

Neumann's Barber Shop Is Ultra Modern

Patrons of the Neuman Barber Shop are finding new comfort in the air cushion seats with which all chairs of that shop are equipped. "It even makes waiting a relaxation," said one of Joe Wichtner's customers who had his shave at the Neuman shop Monday evening for the first time. Joe, who formerly operated a shop in the recreation building, now holds down the third chair in the refurbished Neuman Shop.

This shop is now entirely new equipped with the very latest in modern fixtures, which includes anything and everything needed in a tonsorial shop. Naturally, M. Neuman is as pleased as his customers. He has at last reached his ambition to own one of the first shops to be found in any town of 5,000 inhabitants.

Tennis Courts Nearly Ready for Play

The new tennis courts in Arlington Recreation park have reached the point where the public can realize how perfect they are going to be. Coat, after coat of finishing material have been put in place. Only the final coat, which will give the floor of the courts a linoleum finish remains to be done. The sides of the tennis field are rounded with the same finish as the floor of the courts, making the entire area waterproof and ideal for winter skating.

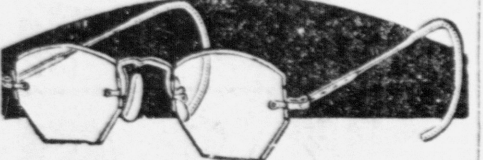

The electric light fixtures, which will permit night playing are now being assembled.

Owing to the nature of the courts, stringent rules for playing will have to be enforced, such as permitting only use of tennis shoes, etc.

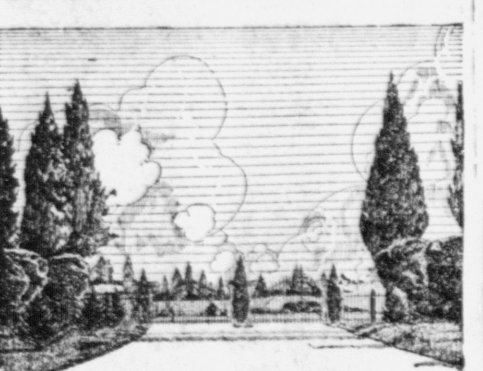

The Euclid and Campbell street sewer project which was completed this week is probably one of the most important ever attempted in Arlington Heights. Twenty homes without sewer connections now have sewage facilities, and drainage has been provided for a large territory. This project cost the village of Arlington Heights practically nothing, the individual property owners paying the costs of materials.

Arlington Legion Carnival July 21-25, To Be Held Downtown

C. L. Griffith, commander of the Merle J. Griffith American Legion states that it is expected that the 1936 carnival will be held on Davis street, opposite the railroad park. The event will start Tuesday, July 21 and extend to Saturday night, July 25.

The Legion boys have always given the public a good time and have many followers. Race track visitors always welcome the event and thus there will be lots doing in Arlington Heights the fourth week of July.

Carl D. Starck Receives Medical Degree; To Serve 18 Months Internship

Carl D. Starck, son of Dr. Carl A. Starck, will graduate Saturday, June 13, from the Chicago College of Medicine. Carl D. Starck is a typical Palatine boy having been born in Palatine and educated in the Palatine schools. He graduated from the Palatine township high school and was salutatorian of his class.

After completing his course in the Palatine township high school, Carl took a year's course at the Bryant & Stratton Business College in Chicago, after which he entered the University of Illinois, where he took his pre-medical course.

With all of this preliminary education for a groundwork, Carl entered the Chicago College of Medicine and is just completing a four year course in medicine at that school. He has passed all the final examinations with high honors and will be graduated on Saturday when the college holds its graduation exercises at the Goodman theatre in Chicago.

Carl's host of Palatine friends are happy to see him accomplish the goal of his ambition after all the years of studious effort.

The requirements for a medical career are much more rigid now than in past years and in order to secure a degree in medicine a young man has to go through many more years of arduous study and preparation than was the case in the old days.

Carl D. Starck has worked hard and faithfully to attain his goal and his many friends join in hearty congratulations to him upon the attainment of his degree. Carl's success reflects credit not only upon the pleasing young man which Carl has always been, but upon the Palatine schools as well, because it was right here in the home schools that this home boy secured his early training.

After graduation Carl will enter the South Chicago Community hospital on July 1, for an eighteen months internship. Later on Carl will probably join his father in the practice of medicine.

Dr. Carl A. Starck was also a home town boy, who graduated from the local high school, then secured his medical degree and entered practice in his home town. Dr. Starck has been one of the most successful physician-surgeons in this section for over thirty years, and it has always been young Carl's ambition to follow in his father's footsteps.

With the completion of his long and strenuous years of study with the securing of his degree this week Carl is well on his way and Palatine unites in extending this friendly and popular Palatine young man, its hearty congratulations and its best wishes for future success.

Softball League Games Three Nights a Week; Visitors Welcomed

Softball is off to a good start for the 1936 season. Five teams make up the league, with games scheduled every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday evening at seven o'clock. Three rounds will be played, so that the championship season will last through the first week of August. Each team can also discover its strength relative to that of any other team, since this program calls for three games between them. Wednesday evenings have been left open for non-league games and assigned to the teams in rotation. It is expected that several good games with out-of-town teams will result.

Organization of the league is more complete this year than ever before. All expenses have been anticipated and will be met out of assured funds. The care of the grounds, including marking base-lines and storing the equipment, is assigned to one person, so that these duties will be performed. Umpiring is in the hands of Judge Koppin, who has full authority on the field, and will maintain peace.

The school board very kindly consented to the use of the grounds in order that this recreational program might continue. The Softball League was asked to assume responsibility for playground equipment and for disposal of rubbish which might accumulate during games. Spectators and players are asked to co-operate in meeting these conditions.

The merchants of the town are, in the long run, the ones who should receive credit for the continued existence of the league. Several of them have spent sums ranging up to one hundred dollars in sponsoring teams and equipping them. Practically all of the merchants in the village have assisted the league by buying advertising space on the schedule sheets. Those persons who enjoy playing or watching sports and who believe in the community and individual values of a recreational program should be deeply grateful to these loyal patrons. Below is a list of those firms which are supporting the league.

It matters not what you possess;
Material things the world may see,
It matters more the way you bless
With kindly deeds, humanity,
It matters not the time you've spent.

For higher learning, understood,
Best choose the way the Master went,
On all life's way still doing good.

In other or fewer words, just like this, "Think more of your deed and less of your creed, 'tis what you do, not what you say that makes most difference any way. Be ye doers of the word and not hearers only."

Just occurs to me, there is much stir and discussion as to the platform for the political parties in the approaching election of our next president.

Past experience has taught our people to know that it matters not what planks are put into a parties platform as much as it matters how strong the material used, and how firm the resolution to keep the promises those planks represent or convey.

Last week one mid-day hour was devoted to youth. That was fine and many helpful talks were given. Some pertinent, some not so much like we think most needed. One great social statesman said, "It is a time for youth to dream dreams and see visions." Another quoting this flowery advice said with emphasis, "I say not so, it is a time for youth to wake up."

Isn't it about time the older generation begin to turn their study as to things needed into their own inner motivations and responsibilities? It is really a shame the way people criticize our boys. The other day some one said, "These high school youths are so unprepared to become business men or to take their places as citizens in civic affairs." Gosh (excuse the classic) look at their fathers."

We have faith to believe in the younger generation. The boy who has a capable efficient father, whether high school or college bred matters not. What ever his calling work or profession, that boy has a better chance than the boy whose father is not a good example to follow.

What price progress do you ask? Watch the toiler at his task; Dignity under ground.
Mighty muskets all about.
'Tis their strength must carry out Plans, however profound.
Through all great improvements length.

Toilers pay for with their strength, Men may plan and men may scheme,
But the toiler builds the dream.

Some of our greatest manufacturers such as Ford and Chrysler began as poor boys. Chrysler's father, a poor blacksmith in Missouri. The boy got work whenever he could in trade, farm or shop ever at work.

You have no doubt heard the public speakers over radio comparing the means of transmitting news all over the nation and the world today, then were the chances in 1860 when Abraham Lincoln was nominated president. Only single wire telegraphs to carry the word all over this nation of magnificent distances.

Read the innumerable and innumerable lines over telephone, telegraph and over the air. It is immense beyond description to contemplate the marvels of our time. Why we can even hear our convention speakers wink at their "come-ments."

Comes the great Republican convention, roaring over the air, who will be nominated and will the choice be made by those who sit in the seats of the mighty? God forbid. We who are simply voters pray and hope for wise choice.

Speaking of poets, most of us like to read and discuss the ancient classics. We do appreciate and enjoy reading Shakespeare, Milton, Scott and all the old classics. None excelling our own Longfellow, Whittier, Lowell and Byron, when he is poetical.

Yet, give the poet who is large enough to enter into and appreciate the common place thing in life who touches our hearts as only a Burns or a Whittier can do. Do you know why some poets are more popular than others. 'Tis because they have the human touch.

If one could write in lofty strain, Of the whole universe outspread, To thrill and echo back again, Waking the sleepers seeming dead.

In lettered gems could one but trace, Emotions that will rise and stir; Written on many a human face, A friendly smile or bitter slur.

To trace destructive fiends that mar, The tumult on the trail of life; The crumpled of a brilliant star, To make munitions for earth's strife.

So much do people criticize, Of lack in vision far and vast; So little do they realize, The present far o'er tops the past.

They scoff at simple rhyme and rhythm, And seek to search life's mysteries, Poor pignies knowing not with Him Reposed creations symphonies.

'Tis well to use words dignified, To picture seas and mountains vast; Yet poetry long ages tried, Written upon the heart will last.

Why should we strain great lines to trace, To win the greater poets art, While touches of the common place, Wins smiles and tears from every heart.

Shakespeare and Milton tower high, But O how homelike 'tis to rest, To lay the cares of daylight by, And hear kind, friendly Edgar Guest.

Recently we were requested to fill out answers to the following questions: "In the past ten years, has Arlington Heights grown forward or backward?" In answer we say it has grown forward in more and better or more modern buildings. In a much larger population, in better streets and walks. It has grown backward in the loss of many of its most worthwhile and attractive features, many of its oldest, most stately trees have been cut down, and many others are threatened destruction.

The cherry orchards and the annual cherry festival are also things of the past. The gorgeous display of premises on many home lawns are now lost. We have many more garden clubs and other organizations, yet are our people cultivating more flowers? Some of our much bragged of new improvements have not always improved. Backwards or forward? Study the results of Arlington race track, our million dollar drainage system and make reply.

Just now Observer is aching to show up what lately "observed" in a boasted educational magazine "The Readers Digest." This unques-

Boy Scout Summer Camp Opens June 28; Visitors Welcome June 21

A great deal of enthusiasm is being shown by Scouts and Scouters of the Northwest Suburban Council for the summer season of Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta which will open on June 28, for the Scouts of this Council at Dyer Lake near Slades Corners, Wisconsin.

Due to the fact that the opening of camp has been postponed from June 21 to June 28, the Open House for Scouts, Scouters, parents and friends of Scouting will be held on June 21 instead of June 14 as previously announced. However, anyone who desires may visit camp on June 14, as some of the staff will be there.

It is preferred, however, to visit on June 21 as the camp will be more nearly set up and ready for the inspection of visitors. Former campers, particularly, are interested in the members of the camp staff who will be their leaders for this season. Members of the camp staff from the Northwest Suburban Council are:

Asst. Scoutmaster Edward Foster of Troop 26 of Niles Center, who will serve as Director of the Indian Village. He is well versed in Indian Lore, is a veteran Scout and a member of the Staff at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta for four years. "Boutterimes" The expression is French and means rhymed endings. A list of words that rhyme with one another is drawn up. Each competitor is given a copy, and must make a verse ending with the words, without changing their places on the list. Judges award a prize to the best.

Denials and Negatives He who gives himself up to denials and negations reduces himself to their level, and becomes himself a negation, a silence when men are calling for a voice, a darkness when they are crying for a light.

A HAPPY ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Peeters invited a company of their intimate friends to their home last Saturday night following the country club dance. Mr. and Mrs. Peeters had arranged to entertain these guests, and only intimate friends were aware of the fact that it was the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. Of course it got out and was the cordial hospitality of the twenty years bride and groom.

The guests whirled in and made it one of the most joyful of all the times ten anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Peeters had enjoyed their married life very much. They reported to have no regrets out of Mrs. Peeters, as she is not searching for publicity, we join the hosts of Mr. and Mrs. Peeters in wishing them many happy returns, even to the golden and if they wish it a diamond to sparkle in their crown, with their two bright sons to keep them forgetful of the years always sure "the best is yet to be."

The Sin Clair personnel of Norwood Park, Des Plaines and Barrington, had their monthly entertainment, consisting of their own orchestra and floor show, Tuesday evening at the El Road, corner Elmhurst and Rand roads.

Liked Colors

The ancient Egyptians completely covered the inside walls of their temples with painted decorations, generally in strong contrasts of red, yellow and blue combined with much gold. This rich effect, somewhat garish to our modern eye, was, however, toned down by the dim light of the great halls.

Warns Parents Of Danger In July Accidents

"A situation in which children are killed by the score and injured by the thousands in the act of celebrating the fact that this country is a free and independent democracy calls for immediate correction and cure." So declared a great statesman at a recent conference on Fireworks Accidents held in New York.

The toll of human lives each Fourth of July from the use of fireworks and toy firearms is appalling. For instance, in New York City, where there is a law prohibiting the sale of fireworks within the city limits, the hospitals in 1934 reported 2,600 casualties from fireworks—1,500 more than the previous year. New York is no worse in this respect than other cities throughout the country. It is a mistaken notion that we have or ever have had a safe and safe Fourth of July in America.

Let us ask ourselves a few questions which should visualize better than in any other way the Fourth of July situation:

Have you ever seen a child with one eye closed for life?

Have you ever seen a little girl in a lacy holiday dress catch fire?

Have you ever heard the cry of a child in pain?

Have you ever smelled the odor of burning human flesh?

Have you ever played with a child on your knee in the morning, and seen him dead in the evening?

This is the sort of thing we are talking about when we talk about Fourth of July accidents.

The Safety League urges that commemoration of Independence Day take the form of pageantry, athletic events, and other forms of recreation to eliminate children's desire for the excitement of fire works, firearms and bonfires.

Parents can do much to safeguard the lives of their children. First and foremost, they themselves can observe the rules which make for personal safety, and thus set a good example for children to follow.

Parents must give time and energy to teaching their children how to avoid accidents. Safety is a teachable subject—the responsibility rests with the parents.

Old Heidelberg Octette On Public Service Weekly Radio Program

So successful was the recent guest appearance of the Old Heidelberg Octette on the Public Service Company's Mardi Gras of Melody that the popular male chorus has been engaged as a regular feature of the program. Beginning June 10, and continuing until the series leaves the air for the summer after the program of June 24, the octette will be heard every Wednesday evening on the Mardi Gras over WGN from 9:30 to 10:00 p. m. Chicago time (EST). With the octette will be heard Harold Stokes and his orchestra, and Dudley Crafts Watson, commentator.

Recruited from practically every musical field, including opera, vaudeville, church choirs and musical comedy, the Old Heidelberg Octette was formed at the beginning of the 1933 Century of Progress and was featured for two years at the Old Heidelberg Inn on the World's Fair grounds. At the close of the fair, when the Inn was reopened in downtown Chicago, the octette continued as featured performers in the famous restaurant.

Included in the personnel of the Old Heidelberg Octette, which has remained unchanged since the eight soloists banded together as a unit in 1933, are Jackson Murray, Kenneth Morrow, Hugo Carver, Raymond Hentschel and Robert Kessler, tenors; Walter Peterson, baritone; Carl Von Bitterl and Willard Andelin, basses; and Eddy Freckman, pianist and arranger.

Life Span 6 Weeks

The average life of a bee that is born in the spring or summer is only about six weeks. In that period it works itself to death, producing about a teaspoon of honey.

Several of our citizens have been on fishing trips already, but keep our ear to the ground as close as we can, we do not seem to hear any of the usual "fish stories."

KINDERGARTEN COUNCIL FORMED

On Tuesday afternoon, Miss Catharine Whitcomb, who has conducted the Mount Prospect Kindergarten during the past year, was guest of honor at a tea tendered by Mrs. A. A. Ackley, assisted by Mrs. Chas. Angell and Mrs. A. S. Fack.

The group consisted of more than twenty-five mothers of children of kindergarten age, and such interest was shown that the Village is assured of its community kindergarten for another year. A Kindergarten Council was elected to cooperate with Miss Whitcomb during the year and to foster an appreciation of the advantages of kindergarten training. Its members are Mesdames Ackley, Bittner, Freitag and Work.

Local Scout Chatter

Troop 23 of Mt. Prospect, held their meeting on June 2, 1936. Most of the troop members were not there because the 7th grade, of the public school, was taking the graduating class to a show. The scouts collected dues and played games. They were given advice on tracking and forest sign language by the assistant scoutmaster, Lee Helwig.

After the troop meeting an officer's meeting was held. The officers discussed forming four new patrols in the troop. They also planned for another hike. Irwin Gadske has been chosen to pick the games and conduct them each meeting night.

WHEELING

Mrs. L. Williams of Iberia, Mo., has come to spend the summer months with her daughter, Mrs. R. Fitzpatrick.

Dolores and Joyce Scanlon helped their twin cousins, Donald and Ronald Ortel, celebrate their fourth birthday on Sunday, May 31, at Wilmette.

Mr. J. E. Barrett returned home Thursday evening from Syracuse, New York, where he spent an intensely interesting and busy week attending the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church U. S. A., as an official delegate of Chicago Presbytery. Mr. Barrett gave a detailed report of the activities of the assembly which is the highest governing body of the church, at the Sunday morning church service. Although the assembly program kept the delegates occupied almost continuously each day and evening, he found it to be a most inspiring experience, far from monotonous. His only regret was that not more members of the congregation could share the experience of sensing the vital influence of Christianity in society, that comes through such a contact with the church at large.

Wheeling baseball team defeated Long Grove by a score of 10 to 1 in a game played at Long Grove on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Homer Cokenower and Miss Lucille Bradford were married in Chicago last Friday. At present the young couple are making their home with the bride's parents.

Mrs. Cecelia Henkelman and two children from Defiance, Iowa, spent last week with her sister, Mrs. W. Scanlon and family.

Mrs. Lewis Holtje spent the week-end at Naperville, attending the class play and baccalaureate services of Naperville College, her Alma Mater.

Parents of children 12 years of age and under will be interested to know that plans are well under way for a vacation church school to be held week day mornings except Saturdays for a period of four weeks in the Presbyterian church. This is the first opportunity of this kind which the local church has had to offer and is being made possible through financial help from friends from another locality, in providing the services of a trained director and for purchasing of materials. Several of the regular church school leaders will serve on the staff of the school assisted by some of the older girls. A program of instruction, worship, handicraft and recreation will be carried on which will be interesting and helpful to the children. All children of the community are invited to enroll. Although the purposes of the school will include Christian teaching no denominationalism will be stressed in the program. The school will open June 29 and continue for four weeks.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday, June 14, morning worship, 10:55 o'clock. This will be the joint service of older church school classes and congregations.

Sunday school for Primary room, 9:30 a. m.
Sunday, June 21, will be observed as Father's Day and Children's Day by a special service on that day at 7:45 p. m.

Ethel Mundt.

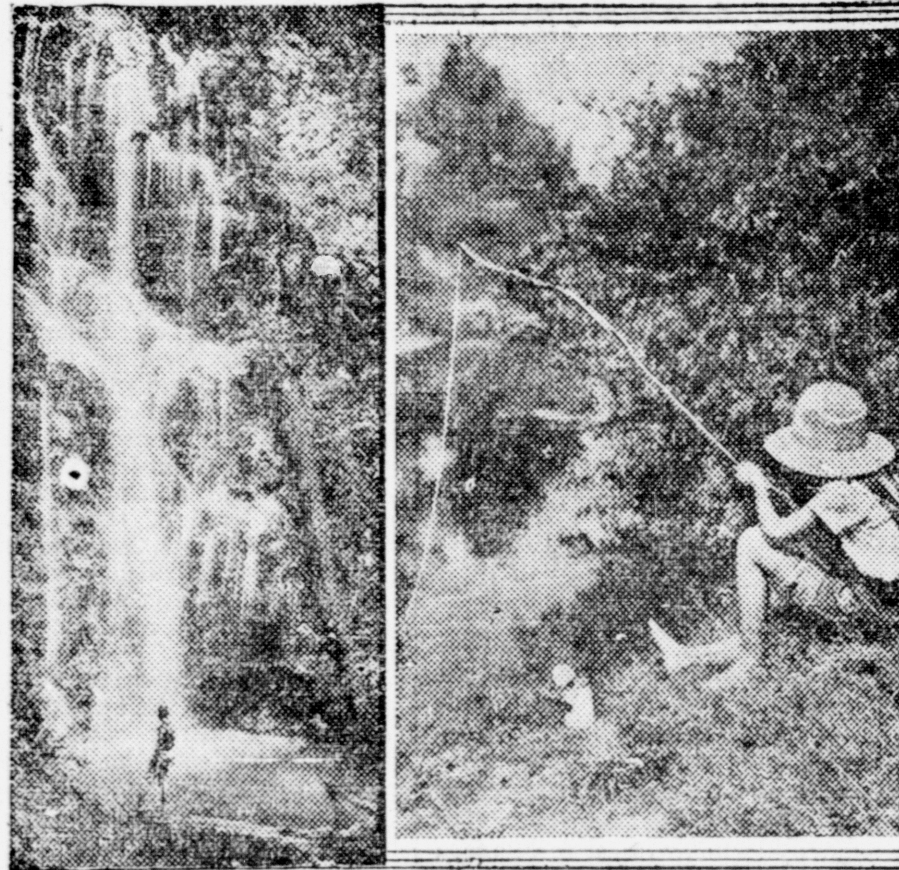

The public is very cordially invited to attend.

American Legion Auxiliary Notes

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Gehring on Monday evening. There were nineteen members present. American chairman, Mrs. Budlong, read a history of the flag of the United States. The proposed amendment to change the meeting to once a month, was rejected by the members.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

THINK BEFORE YOU SHOOT

Left: A person often can be included incidentally in a scene to add composition and to denote relative sizes. Right: This is more directly a story-telling picture in which the figure of the boy dominates.

WHAT shall be done to that newspaper paragraph who recently averred that it is not a peacemaker who takes the worst possible view of things, but an amateur photographer? We of the Snapshot Guild know that this is a scurrilous canard, considering that pictures taken by amateurs are being constantly exhibited in salons and reproduced in magazines and newspapers because of their artistic and photographic excellence.

Publicly, let us disdain this "wise-cracker," but privately, shall we not confess that most of us snapshot-shooters are guilty of "taking the worst possible view of things" more often than we should? Let us acknowledge that there are too many examples of carelessness in our picture taking and strive always to observe the slogan of the Snapshot Guild: "Think twice before you shoot once."

In other words, instead of shooting aimlessly and trusting to luck, let us always take time to secure the best possible composition of our picture subject, for it is composition that makes the difference artistically between a good and a bad picture.

Composition is really only another word for arrangement. In photography some arrangements we can make by purposely placing figures or objects, but since in much of our picture taking we are powerless to make any physical changes, we have to make the arrangement wholly by changing the viewpoint of the camera. We may move it a few inches or a few feet and change the composition decidedly. In this way we are able properly to place in our picture the dominating point of interest that every good picture must have. To be effective, this principal point of interest should usually be a little away from the center. Then we should look to see how well lines, lights, and shadows lead the eye to it and give it emphasis.

Often we may be obliged or desire to admit secondary objects of interest, but if we do not study their position before we click the shutter and consider distance and angle, we may find that what we intended to be secondary has "stolen the show." For example, we are impressed by the beauty of a waterfall, and ask a friend to be in the picture for a touch of human interest. Then we take the picture so close that it becomes a picture of a person and the beauty of the waterfall is lost.

Remember, too, that in photography, since light and shadow are vital parts of the arrangement, the time of day affects composition of all outdoor pictures. A good composition at 11 o'clock in the morning may be a poor composition at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, for shadows have form and light has emphasis. Study these lights and shadows in relation to the main object of your picture. It is often worth while waiting for them to change.

JOHN VAN GUILDER.

Says Herald Statement Is Untrue, Plenty of WPA Men Want Private Jobs

Branding as deliberately false a statement in the Herald last week to the effect that the two construction companies working on Rand and Palatine roads were forced to go elsewhere for laborers because local men preferred their WPA jobs, an Arlington Heights worker with 12 years construction experience says he is willing and ready to go to work in five minutes and can get 30 other local men who are ready to do likewise.

This worker who is a WPA employee, and desperately trying to get private work, says he has solicited five different outfits in this part of the county only to be turned down in every case. He claims that local men haven't a chance to get on, because the outside construction companies doing the work in northwest Cook county favor their friends and others who have previously worked for them.

The Rock Road Construction company is doing the work on Palatine road and the Chicago Heights Coal company on Rand road. The complainant says he has made several applications for work at both places.

AT THE CATLOW

Little Shirley Temple gives a grand performance as the little waif of the lighthouse in "Captain January," which finishes its three-day run at the Catlow theatre, Barrington, Friday night. Guy Kibbee as the Captain heads the large supporting cast, all of which give a good account of themselves.

Irvin S. Cobb—the man with the face you can not forget—has the starring role in "Everybody's Old Man," playing Saturday night. "Fact is," says Cobb, "I don't like my face much myself; but millions of movie-goers can't be wrong, and they have laughed Cobb into stardom. In 'Everybody's Old Man' he has a role down to earth and up to mirth, with Rochelle Hudson, Johnny Downs and Norman Foster in featured roles.

Picture fans will welcome Robert Montgomery in "Petticoat Fever," coming to the Catlow Sunday and Monday. Myrna Loy has the feminine lead in this story of a young wireless operator in an ice-bound Labrador station. He is so lonely that when a young girl flies and her pilot make a forced landing nearby, he holds them prisoner rather than face another Arctic night alone.

Tuesday brings another of the thrilling Hop-Along Cassidy adventures, with William Boyd in the title role. It will be offered as the bargain night attraction of the week.

"Things To Come" from the pen of H. G. Wells, pictures life and love as he visions it 100 years from now. It took three years of production labor, and a cast of 20,000 to film this prediction of the universe of tomorrow.

Microphotograph, Photomicrograph

Originally the terms microphotograph and photomicrograph were quite distinct in meaning. In 1858 G. Shadolt wrote: "The word microphotograph originated, I believe, with myself, and is applied, I think correctly, to very small photographs, not to photographs of small objects, which would more correctly be photomicrographs." Following the original concept, and still in correct usage, a photomicrograph is a photograph of a microscopic object on a magnified scale. A microphotograph is merely a miniature photograph, resembling the image seen through an inverted telescope or opera-glass. The term is also employed, though erroneously, for photomicrographs.—Literary Digest.

RED WINGS BEAT ALGONQUIN

The Red Wings, last Sunday, administered a sound trouncing to the Algonquin Cubs to the tune of 10 to 1.

The Red Wings scored four runs in the first inning to take an early lead. They came back with five in the third and scored their final tally in the fifth inning. During all this scoring the Red Wings pounded out 16 hits.

B. Diederich twirled the first five innings, holding Algonquin scoreless, and allowing but two hits. W. Meyer, at this point, made his first appearance as a pitcher this year and held Algonquin scoreless without a hit for the next two innings. G. Schaefer pitched the last two innings yielding the only run of the visitors and allowed two hits to make a total of four for Algonquin. Irvin Kehe and Ray Willert were the big guns for the Red Wings, each connecting for four hits. One of I. Kehe's hits was a double with the bases full.

The Red Wings next Sunday will travel to Sycamore to take on the strong Anaconda Wire Team and are convinced they will come back with a win to make up for the setback they received by Sycamore earlier in the season. If you want to see a real battle, be sure to see the game at Sycamore Sunday.

NORTH WESTERN PUTS ON FAST MINNESOTA "400"

A new, fast, air-conditioned train, the "Minnesota 400," connecting directly with the Chicago and North Western Railway's famous Chicago-Twin Cities "400" at Wyeville, Wisconsin will be put into service by that line June 14 to provide hours faster service to the southern part of Minnesota. R. Thomson, passenger traffic manager of the road, announced.

The new train takes passengers leaving Chicago at 3:00 p. m. and Milwaukee at 4:15, from the regular "400" on its arrival at Wyeville on the northbound trip at 6:47 and leaves at 6:50 for the 216 mile run from Wyeville to Mankato. The new train will serve Sparta, Wisconsin; Onalaska, Winona, Rochester, Owatonna, Waseca, and Mankato, Minnesota, and surrounding territory. It will arrive at Mankato at 11:35 p. m.

For the southbound trip, the train will leave Mankato at 12:55 p. m., connecting with the "400" at 5:43. These passengers, of course, will arrive at Milwaukee at 8:15, Chicago at 9:30, standard time.

This train will include, besides the engine and baggage car, completely air-conditioned coach and cafe lounge car facilities.

This train will cut almost five hours off the present running time of through trains between Chicago and this portion of Minnesota, according to Mr. Thomson.

The "Minnesota 400" will also make a close connection with a train out of Mankato at 11:37 p. m., serving Tracy, Brookings, Huron and Pierre in South Dakota.

NEW IMPLEMENT-TRACTOR TIRES AID TO FARMERS

In Combination They Enable the Agriculturist To Get Most From His Equipment

A new tire combination that finally permits the farmer to get maximum efficiency from his farm machinery is taking the country by storm, according to Elroy Winkelman, local dealer for The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.

"This new combination is the Goodyear-All-Traction tire for tractors and the brand new Goodyear Implement tire for all rolling farm implements," Mr. Winkelman explained. "The Goodyear tractor tire brought out several months ago has proved in actual use of thousands of farms throughout the country that it offers far more traction than previous tires of that type. Reasons for this are easy to see when it is explained that the newly-designed lug bars and husky diamonds are deeper and sharper. More shoulder tread gives better traction on hillsides, too, and the new tread itself 30 per cent better. More than 30 per cent extra draw bar pull is given by the tire, and farmers everywhere are installing it on present equipment and specifying it on new tractors.

The companion tire—the new Goodyear Implement Tire—is especially designed for all drawn implements. Goodyear some time ago foresaw the need for a special tire for implements, realizing the demands on this sort of tire are entirely different than those imposed on tires used primarily on tractors. The implement tire permits easy rolling and prevents slip, and for the first time enables the farmer to really take full advantage of the added speed, flexibility and efficiency which the air tire has given his tractor.

"The Implement tire, in a full range of sizes, fits practically any implement requirement, too, and is one of the reasons why farmers are greeting its advent with more than usual interest," Mr. Winkelman concluded.

Palatine Lions Elect Wm. Ost President

One of the finest programs ever held in Palatine was put on by the Lions Club at its meeting Thursday. Two features brightened the evening—Howard Hoffman, better known as Chandu, the Magician, and the Crane Technical Accordion Orchestra.

Thirteen Crane boys, lead by Mrs. Florence White, organizer of the Accordion club which sponsors the orchestra, provided superb music all through the meeting. A number of solos, duets and quartets were featured, in addition to ensemble numbers.

Mr. Hoffman, who was a lecturer of note before joining the radio, read two poems as most of those present had never heard poetry recited before. The first was "The King of Sicily," and the second was "I Am Fate." That his contributions were appreciated was proved by the absolute silence that prevailed during his deliveries. In the second part of Mr. Hoffman's program his crystal revealed some startling "facts" about five prominent Lions, Sidney Page, Otto Gaare, Charles Klopp, Harrison Kincaid and Frank Danielsen. These revelations brought many laughs to those present.

One of those things that usually happens only in story books, occurred when three of the Crane boys played "Sweet Sue." When they had finished, it was announced by Mr. Page that the composer of that popular song was Mr. Will Harris, who was present at the meeting, and who took a bow. One of the boys was heard to remark, "Oh, and how we murdered it."

Sixty-one Lions, their wives and guests ate a delicious dinner served by the ladies of the Lutheran church. Among the out-of-town guests, besides the entertainers, were Mr. and Mrs. Will Harris, introduced by Mr. Page, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Newport and Mrs. O. A. Newport, introduced by Mr. McKown, and Mrs. Bertha C. Kurtz, introduced by Mr. Kurtz.

Election of officers for the coming year was quickly accomplished, as the recommendations of the nominating committee, consisting of Lions Puffer, Wm. Danielsen and Godknecht, were accepted. The new officers, who will be installed next month, are:

William G. Ost, President.
John Reusser, first vice-president.
Harrison Kincaid, second vice-president.
Robert L. Schorpe, third vice-president.

Secretary, William H. DePue.
Treasurer, Otto Gaare.
Tail Twister, Frank Danielsen.
Lion Tamer, Roy L. LaLonde.
Directors, Adolph Godknecht, Dr. John Schmidtke, Clarence Herbst, William Kehe, Jr.

Parking Meters Not Legal According to Motor Club Official

Installation of parking meters, according to a statement issued by the Chicago Motor Club, is an invasion of the rights of motorists. "The supreme court of Illinois has said that the only power vested in a municipality to prohibit or restrict parking is for the purpose of regulating traffic," declared J. H. Braun, general counsel of the club. "It is tantamount," he said, "to selling space on the highways. Furthermore, there is an element of discrimination. One man would be able to leave his car in one spot all day, whereas another might not be able to afford the luxury of buying parking space from the city. It is a clear case of putting burdens on the shoulders of those least able to bear them. Those operating slender budgets will find that their shopping expeditions are increased in cost because of the necessity for paying for the privilege of parking in the streets. To some, of course, this will make no difference. It is also a fact that it is illegal for municipalities to grant any easements in public streets. The entire street must be maintained for public use and no individual is entitled to a grant for more exclusive use."

CUT YOUR THISTLES

(Official Notice)
According to "An Act Concerning Noxious Weeds," all property owners are required by law to destroy noxious weeds growing on their premises, before they reach the seed bearing stage. Full cooperation by every property owner and municipality with the local Thistle Commissioner, will be greatly appreciated.

As a land owner you are hereby notified that you are under a legal duty to destroy all such noxious weeds on the above described premises before seed bearing stage, in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the above mentioned act. The methods of treating and eradicating noxious weeds as recommended by the Department of Agriculture can be obtained from the undersigned.

Full cooperation from property owners will be necessary because a lack of funds prevents the township from employing relief labor as was done last year.

Yours truly,
Louis Clark,
Thistle Commissioner

JULY FOURTH CELEBRATION

Clubs Making Plans for Bigger Program Than Ever

For several years the observance of Independence Day in Mount Prospect has been an ever-growing evidence of the community-mindedness of the village. The celebration has been increasing in size and interest, and this year promises to be no exception in its promise of a "Bigger and Better Fourth."

As usual, the Lions Club is functioning as the "self-starter" and has been promised the cooperation of other public-spirited organizations and individuals.

Walter Weiss, general chairman, has hinted that there will be an interesting program—no speeches—in addition to the annual water fight by the Fire Department, and an exhibition by our prize-winning Boy Scout Drum and Bugle Corps.

PALATINE C.O.P. PLANT WHOOP IT UP

Republicans Here Expected to Put up Stiff Fight in Fall Campaign.

The republicans of Palatine township are becoming intensely interested in the coming campaign for national, state and county offices and are planning to perfect a permanent township Republican organization to look after the party interests. The first meeting of the local Republicans will be held at the Village hall on Friday evening, June 19, at 8 p. m. All Republicans in Palatine township are urged to be present, ladies as well as men.

The first meeting will be for the purpose of organization, talking things over and getting better acquainted with one another. There will be no outside speakers at the first meeting, but the gathering will have the real political flavor, just the same as a temporary chairman will be elected who will sound the keynote of the local Republican's aims and purposes. A permanent organization will then be perfected, and there may be some surprises.

Some of the boys are talking about having a Palatine Township Republican band ready for the occasion, and some more of the fellows have a song composer and cheer leader under cover whom they expect to spring at this meeting or at least at an early date.

So all you loyal Republicans, come one, come all, to the Village hall Friday, June 19, at 8 p. m.

Forecasting Not Exact Science

Forecasting never has and never will be an exact science, according to a weather bureau expert. That is because we must deal with air which cannot be tied down. The sun, lakes, mountains, and deserts are factors which affect air and determine weather conditions. The men who make the forecasts are those with years of training, which includes the making of practice forecasts for states and districts. These men are graded on this work and the most accurate—those who top the list—are given assignments as assistant observers. They move up on the death or retirement of the principal observers.

Orchard Place Defeats La Grange 13-3

The Orchard Place baseball team defeated the La Grange Negro All-Stars at the Orchard Place park. The score was 13 to 3.

Frank Fetter, Orchard Place pitcher allowed the All-Stars only six hits and he struck out seven men. Letzer was given good support in the field Sunday, and his mates pounded the opponent's pitcher, Sam Fields, for four hits in the first inning.

Miller, the clean-up man, got five out of five trips to the plate, and one of them was a terrific home run to left center field.

Eddie Krowka did the catching behind the plate, while his brother, Mike, played third base. Mike only 14 years old, got two hits out of five times up, while his brother got only one. Arnold Benschon replaced one of his teammates in the seventh inning to try to score two men from second and third, but he grounded out to the first baseman.

Sunday, June 14, Orchard Place will play the Higgins Red Sox at the Orchard Place diamond. The game will start at three p. m. Hope you'll be there.
